About the Program

Our visit to N. Senthilkumaran Engineering and Contractors offered valuable insights into precision machining. The facility, equipped with basic machining tools and cutting-edge CNC machines, showcased a commitment to quality and efficiency. The CNC machines demonstrated advanced automation and precision in manufacturing. The staff emphasized rigorous quality control measures, ensuring each component meets industry standards. The visit provided a comprehensive overview of traditional and modern machining practices, highlighting the company's dedication to technological advancement. Special thanks to the team at N. Senthilkumaran Engineering and Contractors for their informative and hospitable engagement.
